John Hays Hammond, Jr., Suggests Aero Patrols

NEW YORK, May 31 .- The Aero Club of America has received from John Hays Hammond, jr., the radio expert, a detailed plan to provide aeroplanes for coast defense equipped with wireless, and a chain of radio stations will make it possible to protect the Atlantic and Pacific coasts and the Mexican border with thirty-three aeroplanes and DAVIDSON'S, Prof. & Mrs. 1329 M Nw as many radio stations. The Aero Club governors consider the proposal great importance and it will be submitted to the National Guard and Naval Militia of the States which are co-operating with the club to develop volunteer aviation corps.

The Hammond plan for the northeastern division of the coast line, for instance, provides for five areas of fifty mile radius constituting the patrol areas for five aero scouts. In the center of each area Mr. Hammond would locate a radio receiving station connected with land lines Each aero scout would be provided with a radio transmitter of sixty-mile daylight radius. Mr. Hammond believes that each scout would be in constant communication with his central station and with proper communication an intelligent under-standing of the enemy's purpose could be gained. He thinks that thirty-three aero scouts could cover the entire

Atlantic City.

IN MEMORIAM

CONNER—In sad and loving remembrance of my dear husband, WILLIAM J. CONNER, who passed away six years ago today, May 31, 1998.

Dear is the grave in which he is laid, Sweet is the memory which never will fade. Heart of my life is buried deep Under the sod, where he peacefully sleeps. God called him home, it was his will,
But in my heart I love him still;
His memory is as dear today
As in the hour he passed away.

—By His Devoted Wife, Hester.
Sweet and peaceful be his rest,
Forget him we can never.
God called him home, He alone knew best,
His will be done forever.

—By His Son and Daughter-in-Law.

—By His Son and Daughter-In-Law.

CONNER—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father and grandfather, WillIAM J. CONNER, who departed this life six years ago, May 31, 1909.

Dear is the grave where you are laid,
Sweet is the memory that never shall fade;
Flowers may wither, leaves fade and die,
Though others forget you, never shall f.

—By His Daughter, Jessie, and Grandchildren.
